Quote from Markéta Matoušková, International Project Manager, Art Movement, NGO:

“The Parallel Worlds project focuses on people suffering from mental disorders and inter-reaction between those and majority society. We have to find common speech and we have to find new perspectives. It aim to expand cultural offerings in participating cities, to encourage civic dialogue, and sense of community, and to intensify interest in civic society and human issues. It will create a pleasant atmosphere in which we can discuss how we can contribute for better VF region. With our Visegrad partners (SK, PL, HU) we trying to help to see new horizons in our common VF region via this project.”

About Art Movement, NGO

Art Movement (AM) , is a non-profit, non-governmental company whose main purpose is to support and promote culture and art in all its spheres, with an emphasis on creating quality Czech and foreign projects which have an opportunity to reach international participants.

Art Movement has established collaborations across the whole of Europe and beyond with research institutes, universities, art centers and various other NGO’s, as well as with dedicated individuals based in Prague, Czech Republic. Art Movement systematically introduces the public to current trends, research methods and results in cultural history, particularly in relation to sociology, political science and cultural anthropology. Opening and providing context for discussions about the importance of culture and civic society in the EU environment are of most importance. Many
